A group of four people, three men and one woman, are walking away from the viewer down a dirt path in a dense forest at night. They are all wearing backpacks. The forest is filled with tall, dark trees and thick foliage. The scene is illuminated by numerous small, warm yellow lights that appear to be fireflies or magical sparks, scattered throughout the trees and on the ground. Two large, glowing blue fairy-like creatures with long, thin legs and translucent wings are visible on the left and right sides of the path. A speech bubble originates from the group, containing text in Portuguese.

Este bosque é tão
encantador quanto
perigoso. Fiquem atentos.

A large, muscular green orc with long, flowing blue hair stands in a dark, misty forest. The orc has a fierce expression, showing sharp teeth and a wide grin. It is wearing a necklace of bones and has brown leather armbands with spikes on its forearms. It holds a large, spiked club in its right hand. The forest is filled with tall, thin trees and moss-covered rocks, creating a mysterious and ominous atmosphere. A speech bubble above the orc's head contains the sound effect "GGRRRRRR!".
